The Birth of All 4 Palestine

The All 4 Palestine initiative is the brainchild of a Palestinian-born Mr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, Chairman and CEO of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Organization and Dr. Sabri Saidam, former Palestinian Minister of Telecommunications and Information Technology who wanted the world to explore in-depth the ingenuity and creativity of Palestinians living around the globe.

The Initiative

This initiative will serve as a trusted source for those who are looking towards a brighter future for their families of Palestinian origin and to those who want to study comprehensively the history of Palestinians who made a name for themselves in various fields and sectors.

This one-of-a-kind initiative is a celebration of everything "Palestinian." This oppressed nation living under the occupation deserves to be credited and deserves to be merited; its men and women; its past and future and its dream and aspiration.

Eligibility

The All 4 Palestine retells the story of some Palestinian scientist, writer, actor, official, comedian, athletic, businessman who through their sufferings made it out in the world and who contributed to global development, became an example appreciated by the younger generation who will look at them as their role model.

Through the "All 4 Palestine Initiative," Palestine will benefit from the expertise of its sons and daughters in all fields and sectors.
